

Independent country model

The difference between the predicted value and the observed value.

